CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

‘‘Early childhood and well-being: toward the ‘good’ life’’

Conference

29th June - 30th June 2020, Technical University Dortmund, DE

The Institute for Social Pedagogy, Adult Education and Pedagogy in Early Childhood (ISEP) of the Technical University of Dortmund in collaboration with the EECERA SIG “Holistic Well-Being” and the Department of Early Childhood of Liverpool Hope University cordially invites you to participate in the: ‘Early childhood and well-being: toward the “good” life’ Conference. The theme of this Conference derives from the interests and scope of the EECERA SIG and addresses the timely concept of children’s well-being in a holistic, multi-disciplinary and inclusive manner, under four strands: ➤ The child ➤ The family ➤ The adult ➤ The society

We would like to welcome your abstracts. Please email your abstract at: holisticwellbeing.fk12@tu-dortmund.de and include in a Word doc:

- a title,
- your details,
- a 250-300 abstract,
- 4 key words,
- the strand you think your abstract relates to.

The deadline for abstract submissions: 14 February, 2020